

[AS PASSED BY THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY]

A

to provide for protection against waging of war against Pakistan and the prevention of acts threatening the security of Pakistan

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for protection against waging of war against Pakistan, prevention of acts threatening the security of Pakistan and for speedy trial of offences falling in the Schedule annexed to this Act and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto;

It is hereby enacted as follows:-

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Protection of Pakistan Act, 2014.

(2) It extends to the whole of Pakistan:

Provided that the Federal Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, confine the application of this Act to such area or areas as it may specify in this behalf or may by similar notification exclude any area or areas from the application of this Act.

(3) It shall come into force on such date or dates as the Federal Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, specify and different dates may be specified for different provisions of this Act:

Provided that this Act shall remain in force for a period of three years from the date any of its provisions first comes into force unless extended further by a resolution passed by each House of the Parliament for a period not exceeding three years.

3. Use of armed forces and civil armed forces to prevent scheduled offences.— (1) Any police officer, or member of the armed forces, or civil armed forces who is present or deployed in any area may, on reasonable apprehension of commission of a scheduled offence after giving sufficient warning, use the necessary force to prevent the commission of a scheduled offence, and in so doing shall, in the case of an officer of the armed forces or civil armed forces, exercise all the powers of a police officer under the Code.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to generality of sub-section (1), an officer of the police, armed forces and civil armed forces may,—

- (a) after giving prior warning use such force as may be deemed necessary or appropriate, keeping in view all the facts and circumstances of the situation, against any person who is committing or in all probability is likely to commit a scheduled offence, it shall be lawful for any such officer after forming reasonable apprehension that death or grievous hurt may be caused by such act, to fire, or order the firing upon any person or persons against whom he is authorized to use force in terms hereof:

Provided that the decision of fire or order firing shall be taken only by way of last resort, and shall in no case extend to the inflicting of more harm than is necessary to prevent the scheduled offence which has given rise to the reasonable apprehension of death or grievous hurt:

Provided further that all cases of firing which have resulted in death or grievous hurt shall be reviewed by an Internal inquiry committee constituted by the concerned law enforcement agency;

- (b) any police officer , a member of the armed forces or civil armed forces acting in aid of civil authority may arrest, without warrant, any person who has committed a scheduled offence or against whom a reasonable suspicion or credible information exists that he has committed, or is about to commit any such act or offence; and
- (c) any such officer may enter and search, without warrant any premises to make any arrest or to take possession of any property, fire-arm, weapon or article used, or likely to be used, in the commission of any scheduled offence.

(3) Nothing contained in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall affect the provisions of Chapter IX of the Code and the provisions of section 132 of the Code shall apply to any person acting under this section.

4. Application of the Code.—The provisions of the Code, insofar as they are not inconsistent with this Act, shall be applicable thereto.

5. Investigation.— (1) All the scheduled offences shall be cognizable and non-bailable.

(2) All scheduled offences, where armed forces / civil armed force are acting in aid of civil authority shall be inquired into and investigated by a Joint Investigation Team comprising of one gazetted police officer and two officers from the armed forces/civil armed forces. The Joint Investigation Team shall be headed by the Police Officer as aforesaid.

(3) Whenever a person is arrested or detained in custody under clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 3 and it appears that the inquiry or investigation cannot be completed within the period of twenty-four hours, the head of Joint Investigation Team or any other officer acting under him, excluding the time necessary for journey from the place of arrest or detention to the court shall produce him before a Special Judicial Magistrate and may apply for remand of the accused to the custody of the police or custody of any other investigating agency.

(4) A Special Judicial Magistrate may authorize, from time to time, the detention of the accused in such custody as such Special Judicial Magistrate thinks fit for a term not exceeding ninety days:

Provided that the Special Judicial Magistrate shall not remand an accused person to custody under this section for a period exceeding fifteen days at a time.

Provided further that all such reports requesting for further custody of the accused shall be submitted through the Public Prosecutor.

(5) A person arrested or detained under this Act whose identity is unascertainable shall, subject to provisions of section 15, be considered an Enemy Alien and presumed to have joined waging war or insurrection against Pakistan.

6. Preventive detention.— (1) The Government may, by an order in writing, authorize the detention of a person for a period specified in the order that shall not exceed ninety days if in the opinion of the Government such person is acting in a manner prejudicial to the integrity, security, defense of Pakistan or any part thereof or external affairs of Pakistan or public order or maintenance of supplies and services:

Provided that detention of such person shall be in accordance with the provisions of Article 10 of the Constitution:

Provided further that without prejudice to the above, an Enemy Alien or an Enemy may be detained by the Government for such period as may be determined by it from time to time in accordance with Article 10 of the Constitution.

Explanation.—A person connected or reasonably believed to be connected with the commission of a scheduled offence or a person falling under sub-section (5) of section 5 shall be deemed to be a person acting in the manner stated above.

(2) In areas where the Federal Government or the Provincial Government has called Armed Forces in aid of civil power under Article 245 of the Constitution or where any civil armed force has been called by the Federal Government or Provincial Government in aid of civil power under the Anti-Terrorism Act, 1997, the said requisitioned force may detain any Enemy Alien, Enemy, or any person connected or reasonably believed to be connected with the commission of a scheduled offence in designated internment camps after a notification to that effect:

Provided that detention of such person shall be in accordance with the provisions of Article 10 of the Constitution.

(3) At any time during the said notifications or upon their withdrawal, such internee may be handed over to Police or any other investigating agency for formal investigation and prosecution.

(4) The Federal Government shall make Regulations to regulate the internment orders, internment camps, and mechanisms for representation against the internment orders.

(5) Any person arrested or detained by the armed forces or civil armed forces and kept under arrest or detention before the coming into force of the Protection of Pakistan (Amendment) Ordinance, 2014 (Ordinance No. I of 2014) shall be deemed to have been arrested or detained pursuant to the provisions of this Act if the offence in respect of which such arrest or detention was made also constitutes an offence under this Act.

7. Report.— Upon completion of investigation, the Joint Investigation Team shall, through the Public Prosecutor, submit a report before the Special Court:

Provided that notwithstanding anything contained in the Qanun-e-Shahadat, 1984 (P.O.10 of 1984), such report shall be admissible in evidence within the meaning of section 173 of the Code.

8. Establishment of Special Courts etc.—(1) The Government may establish as many Special Courts under this Act as determined by it.

(2) The Government, in consultation with the Chief Justice of the concerned High Court, may appoint any person as judge of the Special Court constituted under this Act who is or has been a Sessions Judge in any province of Pakistan or has been an Advocate of the High Court for a period of not less than ten years.

(3) A judge of the Special Court shall have all the powers of a Sessions Court as provided under the Code.

(4) The Government may provide security of tenure to a judge of the Special Court appointed under this Act through rules to be framed under this Act.

(5) The Government may, in consultation with the Chief Justice of the concerned High Court, appoint any Magistrate of the First Class serving as a member of the subordinate judiciary under any High Court or any other officer of not less than BPS-18 of the Pakistan Administrative Service or Provincial Management Service of any Province as Special Judicial Magistrate.

(6) The Special Judicial Magistrate shall have all the powers of a Magistrate of the First Class provided under the provisions of the Code, unless these are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

(7) No Special Court shall take cognizance of a scheduled offence except on a report submitted under section 7.

9. Place of inquiries, investigations and trials etc.—(1) The Government, on the report of a prosecuting agency, shall determine the place of custody, inquiry, investigation and trial of a scheduled offence anywhere in Pakistan.

(2) Subject to the Constitution,—

- (a) the Government, Joint Investigation Team, armed forces or civil armed forces may, in the interest of the security of its personnel or for the safety of the detainee or accused or intern, as the case may be, or for any other reasonable cause withhold the information regarding the location of the detainee or accused or intern or internment centre established or information with respect to any detainee or accused or intern or his whereabouts; and
- (b) the Government may not in the interest of the security of Pakistan disclose the grounds for detention or divulge any information relating to a detainee, accused or interne who is an Enemy Alien or Enemy.

(3) A person convicted of a scheduled offence subject to direction of the Government may be confined at any place in Pakistan including the prisons established by the Provincial and Federal Governments.

10. Exclusion of public from proceedings of Special Court.— In addition, and without prejudice, to any powers which a Special Court may have by virtue of any law for the time being in force to order the exclusion of the public from any proceedings, if at any stage in the course of the trial of any person before a Special Court, an application is made by the prosecution on the ground that the publication of any evidence to be given or of any statement to be made in the course of the trial would be prejudicial to the public safety, and that, for that reason, all or any portion of the public should be excluded during any part of the hearing, the Special Court may make an order to that effect, but the passing of sentence shall in any case take place in public.

11. Establishment of Prosecuting Agency.—The Government shall establish an independent Prosecuting Agency headed by a Prosecutor General in order to provide consultation and legal guidance to the investigating agency and to conduct the prosecution of scheduled offences.

12. Prosecutor General.—(1) The Government may appoint any person as Prosecutor General who is not less than forty-five years of age and has been an Advocate of the High Court for a period of not less than ten years.

(2) The Prosecutor General may issue instructions and guidelines for the competent investigation and effective prosecution of the cases of scheduled offences.

(3) The Prosecutor General may, with prior approval of the Government, withdraw from the prosecution of any accused in a case pending before any Special Court and on submission of such request the Court may discharge or acquit the accused from the case as it may deem fit.

13. Protection of judges, prosecutors and witnesses etc.—The Government shall take appropriate measures to provide adequate security to the prosecution witnesses, investigating officers, prosecutors, Special Judicial Magistrates and Judges of the Special Courts and for this purpose may establish, anywhere in Pakistan, safe houses and high security prisons with court rooms.

14. Joint trial.—(1) While trying any offence under this Act, a Special Court may also try any other offence, which an accused may, under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, be charged, at the same trial if the offence is connected with such other offence.

(2) If, in the course of any trial under this Act of any scheduled offence it is found that the accused person has committed, in addition any other offence under any other law for the time being in force, the Special Court may convict an accused for such other offence also and pass any sentence authorized by this Act or, as the case may be, such other law.

15. Burden of proof.—An accused facing the charge of a scheduled offence on existence of reasonable evidence against him, shall be presumed to be engaged in waging war against Pakistan unless he establishes his non-involvement in the offence.

16. Punishments.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the Pakistan Penal Code or any other law for the time being in force, the scheduled offence shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to ten years, with fine and confiscation of property unless the scheduled offence already provides a higher punishment. The Special Court may also deprive the offender of the citizenship acquired by him by naturalization.

17. Transfer of cases.—(1) Where, after taking cognizance of an offence, a Special Court is of opinion that the offence is not a scheduled offence, it shall, notwithstanding that it has no jurisdiction to try such offence, return the case to the prosecuting agency for its submission before a court of ordinary jurisdiction.

(2) The Prosecutor General may at any stage of the proceedings withdraw a case from one Special Court and may submit the same before another Special Court constituted under this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the Government may apply to any court of law or tribunal that any case involving any Scheduled Offence punishable under this Act, pending before such a court or tribunal be transferred to a Special Court, then such other court or tribunal shall transfer the said case to a Special Court and it shall not be necessary for the Special Court to recall any witness or again record any evidence that may have been recorded.

18. Certain provisions of the Code not applicable.—The provisions of sections 374, 426, 435, 439, 439A, 491, 496, 497, 498 and 561A of the Code shall not be applicable to the scheduled offences.

19. Appeal.—(1) An appeal against the final judgment of a Special Court shall lie to the Supreme Court.

(2) Copy of the judgment of a Special Court shall be supplied to the accused and public prosecutor on the day the judgment is pronounced.

(3) Any aggrieved person or the Government may file an appeal against the final judgment of a Special Court within a period of thirty days from the pronouncement of judgment.

20. Savings.—No member of the police, armed forces or civil armed forces acting in aid of civil authority, Prosecutor General, prosecutor, Special Judicial Magistrates or the Judge of a Special Court shall be liable to any action for the acts done in good faith during the performance of their duties.

21. Power to make rules.— (1) The Government may from time to time make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act and may also amend, delete or add any offence in the Schedule by publication of a notification in the official gazette.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of foregoing power such rules may include guidelines for police and members of armed force / civil armed forces acting in aid of civil authority while using force to prevent scheduled offences.

22. Overriding effect.— Subject to the proviso to sub-section(2) of section 1 and such conditions as the Government may specify by notification in the Official Gazette, the provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force. In case there is any conflict between the provisions of this Act and any other law for the time being in force the provisions of this Act shall prevail to the extent of inconsistency.

23. Removal of difficulties.— If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any provision of this Act, the President may make such order, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as may appear to him to be necessary for the purpose of removing such difficulty.
