CHAPTER III

PATRON, POLICY BOARD AND ADMINISTRATION

6. Patron and Policy Board.—(1) The Prime Minister of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan shall be the Patron of the Authority, who shall review the performance of the Authority and may, from time to time, give to the Authority general policy directions to implement the same, subject to the terms of this Ordinance.

(2) The Patron shall, by notification in the official Gazette, constitute the Policy Board comprising not less than five and not more than eleven members (including the Chairman), for a term of five years. In case of any casual vacancy, a member (other than the Chairman) may, in the like manner, be nominated by the Patron for the remaining unexpired term of the outgoing member.

(3) The Chairman shall preside over the meetings of the Policy Board, however, in his absence, a member nominated by the Chairman may so preside.

(4) A member, unless disqualified under this Ordinance from holding office, may be re-appointed by the Patron in the above manner, provided that no individual shall serve for more than two consecutive terms as a member.

(5) Two thirds (2/3rd) of the members, including the Chairman [or his nominee under sub-section (3) of this Section 6] present in person or through video-conference or tele-conference, shall constitute the quorum for a meeting of the Policy Board. Subject to quorum, the decisions of the Policy Board shall be taken by majority of the members present and voting, provided that in the event of a tie, the Chairman [or his nominee under sub-section (3) of this Section 6 presiding at such meeting] shall have a second and casting vote.

(6) The Policy Board shall meet at least once in every calendar quarter and a meeting of the Policy Board shall be held on such date and at such time and place, as the Chairman may determine.

(7) The Chairman shall appoint a Secretary of the Authority on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed and who shall perform such functions as the Chairman may direct. The Secretary of the Authority shall also be the secretary of the Policy Board and shall maintain or cause to be maintained, in the prescribed manner, the record of each meeting of the Policy Board including the minutes of the meetings as approved by the Chairman.

(8) The Chairman may invite any person other than a member to attend a meeting of the Policy Board for the purposes of advising or assisting the Policy Board on any agenda item taken up for consideration at such meeting.

(9) A member may resign from his office at any time by writing under his hand addressed to the Patron and such resignation shall be effective from the date of its acceptance by the Patron.

(10) No act or proceeding of the Policy Board shall be invalid merely by reason of any vacancy in or defect in the constitution of the Policy Board.

7. Disqualification of members.—The Patron shall not nominate a person as a member, who:—

- (a) is or, at any time, has been convicted of an offence involving moral turpitude;
- (b) is or, at any time, has been adjudicated as an insolvent;
- (c) is found to be a lunatic or of unsound mind or otherwise physically incapacitated; or
- (d) is in a situation of irreconcilable conflict of interest with the Authority.

8. Removal of a member.—(1) The Patron may remove a member (including the Chairman) during the term of office, if such member is:-

- (a) disqualified from being a member; or
- (b) absent from three consecutive meetings of the Policy Board without leave of absence from the Policy Board; or
- (c) found guilty of misconduct.

(2) The Patron shall not remove a member (including the Chairman) under sub-section (1) without a show cause notice, provision of an opportunity of hearing and recording of reasons in writing.

9. Functions of the Policy Board.—(1) Subject to sub-section (1) of section 6, the Policy Board shall have the responsibility of laying down the policies, plans and guidelines for carrying out the purposes of this Ordinance.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the functions mentioned in sub-section (1), the Policy Board shall—

- (a) establish and maintain strategic direction of the Authority;
- (b) oversee implementation of strategic objectives of the Authority;

- (c) monitor performance and review achievements of the Authority;
- (d) approve the audited accounts of the Authority;
- (e) arrange for, and oversee, the provision of funds for the Authority;
- (f) approve feasibility studies and proposals for development of scheme or schemes in specified areas;
- (g) take measures for capacity building of the Authority for performing its objectives under this Ordinance; and
- (h) transact such other business of the Authority as the Patron or the Chairman may place before it.

10. Chairman and Acting Chairman.— (1) The Patron shall appoint a Chairman of the Authority on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

(2) The Chairman shall be a person of sound integrity and competence, meeting one of the following:—

- (a) that he is a serving or retired officer of the Federal Government in the BPS-22 or equivalent; or
- (b) that he is a serving or retired officer of the Armed Forces, not below the rank of a Lieutenant-General or equivalent;

Explanation: The serving officers from the civil bureaucracy and the Armed Forces will be eligible to be appointed as the Chairman on deputation or secondment basis, as per the applicable laws and rules, or;

- (c) that he is an experienced professional or business person, not having less than thirty years of experience in his field and possesses:—

 - (ii) the qualification of chartered accountancy, cost and management accountancy, barrister-at-law, solicitor.

(3) The Chairman shall not be more than sixty two years of age on the date of first appointment as Chairman.

(4) The Patron shall constitute an evaluation committee, comprising at least one Minister and at least two Secretaries, respectively, of the Federal Government, for the purposes of evaluating and recommending suitable candidates to the Patron for appointment as Chairman. For this purpose, the evaluation committee shall, on behalf of the Patron, solicit applications from candidates through advertisement and recommend at least three names to the Patron. If the Patron is not satisfied with the recommendations of the evaluation committee, he may require further recommendations in the like manner.

(5) The Chairman shall, subject to this Ordinance, hold office for a term of five years and may be re-appointed by the Patron for an additional term of five years.

Explanation: In the event of reappointment as Chairman, sub-section (3) of this section, shall not apply.

(6) In case of death, resignation or removal of the Chairman, the Patron shall, in his discretion, appoint an Acting Chairman to exercise the powers and discretions and discharge the functions and duties of the Chairman under this Ordinance, till a new Chairman is appointed, which shall be done within three months of the occurrence of the vacancy.

(7) Immediately upon the notification of establishment of the Authority under section 4 of this Ordinance and pending appointment of the first Chairman, the Patron, in his discretion, may appoint an Acting Chairman to exercise the powers and discretions and discharge the functions and duties of the Chairman under this Ordinance.

Explanation: An Acting Chairman, appointed under this Ordinance, shall not be precluded from appointment as the permanent Chairman.

11. Functions and Powers of Chairman.—The Chairman shall be the chief executive officer of the Authority responsible for the management, administration and operations of the Authority and, subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, shall exercise all powers and discretions and perform all functions and duties of the Authority under the Ordinance.

12. Appointments of employees.—(1) The Authority may, in such manner and on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by regulations, appoint, remove and regulate the working of, the employees, consultants and advisers of the Authority as may be necessary for purposes of this Ordinance.

(2) The Authority may, from time to time, request the Federal Government to arrange for the secondment or deputation of employees of the Federal Government to the Authority for the purposes of this Act and the Federal Government may depute such employees, subject to their relevant service rules and regulations.

13. Delegation of functions.—The Chairman may, through a written order, delegate any powers, functions or duties of the Authority to any other employee of the Authority and may at his discretion, through a written order, revoke and rescind such delegation.

14. Conflict of interest.—(1) A member of the Policy Board other than the Chairman, shall not directly or indirectly receive any remuneration for his position as the member except the reasonable expenses incurred by the member in the performance of duties under this Ordinance and such fee for attending the meetings as may be prescribed.

(2) The pecuniary interests of the immediate family members or close personal or business associates of a member or an employee of the Authority shall also be considered to be the pecuniary interest of the member or employee.

(3) A member or an employee of the Authority shall be in conflict of interest if the member or employee:—

- (a) is an employee or a consultant of a business entity that has, or of a trade association of business entities that have, a substantial pecuniary interest in any of the functions of the Authority;
- (b) owns, controls or has directly or indirectly more than ten per cent equity in a business entity that has a substantial pecuniary interest in any of the functions of the Authority;
- (c) receives more than twenty-five per cent of his individual income from a business entity that has a substantial pecuniary interest in any of the functions of the Authority; or
- (d) benefits either directly or indirectly, financially or otherwise, from any other organization for being the member or employee of the Authority.

(4) An employee of the Authority shall disclose a potential, real or perceived conflict of interest as soon as he becomes aware of the potential conflict, to the Chairman. A member of the Policy Board (other than the Chairman) shall disclose a potential, real or perceived conflict of interest as soon as he becomes aware of the potential conflict, before the Policy Board or any of its committees seized of the matter. The Chairman shall disclose a potential, real or perceived conflict of interest as soon as he becomes aware of the potential conflict, to the Patron. Any uncertainty or doubt on part of the disclosing party with respect to the existence of conflict of interest shall be decided by the corresponding person or forum as applicable to whom disclosure is to be made in terms of this sub-section.

(5) A member shall not take part in the proceedings of the Policy Board in which any question of conflict of interest of the member is on the agenda.

(6) The disclosure of conflict of interest and the decision of the Chairman, Policy Board or the Patron, as the case may be, shall be specifically recorded in writing and form part of the records of the Authority.

15. Committees and sub-committees.—(1) The Chairman may constitute committees and sub-committees and assign specific tasks to the said committees or sub-committees for efficient performance of the functions of the Authority. The committees or sub-committees, so constituted, shall perform their mandated tasks in the manner to be specified by the Chairman.

(2) A committee or sub-committee may comprise one or more members of the Policy Board, employees of the Authority and/or such experts or persons as the Chairman may consider appropriate for the relevant mandate of the said committee or sub-committee.

(3) The committees or sub-committees, as applicable, shall submit their reports to the Chairman.

CHAPTER IV

FEDERAL LAND BANK ETC.

16. Federal Land Bank.—(1) The Federal Government, on the recommendation of the Authority, shall constitute a Federal Land Bank and for which it may arrange or procure immovable property for the purposes of a scheme through any means permissible under law, including provision of state land by any government or public department, authority, agency or any corporation or entity falling thereunder, on such terms as may be mutually agreed between the Federal Government and the relevant transferor or provider; compulsory acquisition; purchase, lease or license through private agreement or donation by any private party, in the prescribed manner.

(2) For the purposes of the Federal Land Bank, the Federal Government, Provincial Governments, Local Governments and all other public departments, authorities, agencies and all corporations and entities falling thereunder shall cooperate with the Authority to collect information of the immovable property owned or possessed by them and to furnish the same in the manner as prescribed.

(3) The information collected under sub-section (2) of this section shall be compiled and recorded by the Authority in hardcopies and software containing requisite details, maps and geo-graphical location of the immovable properties.

17. Vesting of Property.—Upon arrangement or procurement of immovable properties in terms of section 16, the relevant immovable property shall, unless already so vested, vest in and belong to, the Federal Government. The Authority shall, for and on behalf of the Federal Government, possess, control, manage and deal with all such immovable property for the purposes, and in accordance with the provisions, of this Ordinance and any rules or regulations prescribed hereunder.

18. Regulation of Transfers etc.—Dealings with immovable property in a scheme including transfer, lease, license or encumbrance of such immovable property may be restricted and controlled in such manner and on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed under this Ordinance.

CHAPTER V

CHAPTER VIII

COMMON PROPERTY

27. Common property.—(1) The common property / common areas in a scheme (including common areas in buildings) shall remain vested in the Federal Government. The Authority shall control, manage and deal with all such common property / common areas for and on behalf of the Federal Government, for the purposes of this Ordinance.

(2) The Authority may delegate and regulate the management of the common property / common areas in a scheme in the prescribed manner. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, such prescription may provide for the establishment (including incorporation), composition, regulation, operations, powers and functions and dissolution of management associations by whatever name called.

CHAPTER IX

TAXES, FEES AND CHARGES

28. Authority to be exempt from taxation.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, for a period of five years starting from the date of notification under sub-section (1) of section 4, the Authority shall be exempt from income tax.

(2) The Federal Government through a notification in the official gazette may extend the exemption mentioned in sub-section (1) of this section to such extent and on such terms and conditions, as it may deem fit.

29. Authority to collect property tax.— The Authority or, if authorized by the Authority, management association shall collect property tax, if any, and the Authority shall enter into an arrangement with the concerned government for sharing of proceeds of the property tax collected from a scheme.

30. Authority to levy fee and charges.— The Authority shall fix fees or charges for rendering of any service in a scheme including registration fee, water rate, sanitation fee, solid waste management fee, development or re-development charge and maintenance fee or any other fees, dues and charges.

31. Additional charge or surcharge.— If a person fails to pay a tax, fee or charge to the Authority, the Authority may in the prescribed manner, but subject to the terms of arrangement with the concerned government, levy and collect additional charge and surcharge for non-payment of dues within the specified time.

CHAPTER X

OFFENCES, ENFORCEMENT AND ADJUDICATION

32. Penalty.—(1) If a person contravenes any provision of this Ordinance, or any rules or regulations made under this Ordinance, he shall, if no other penalty is provided for such contravention, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine which may extend to two hundred thousand rupees or with both.

(2) The magistrate competent to try an offence under sub-section (1) may try the offence in a summary manner in accordance with the provisions of sections 260 to 265 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898).

33. Offences and cognizance.—(1) If a person commits an offence specified in—

- (a) Part-A of the Schedule, such person shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years or fine which may extend to five hundred thousand rupees or with both and where an accused was directed by the Authority for immediate discontinuance of the offence, the court may impose a further fine which may extend to fifty thousand rupees for every day for the period the accused has persisted in the offence from the date of its commission; and

- (b) Part-B of Second Schedule, he shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or fine which may extend to one hundred thousand rupees or with both and where an accused was directed by the Authority for immediate discontinuance of the offence, the court may impose a further fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees for every day for the period the accused has persisted in the offence from the date of its commission.

(2) An offence punishable under sub-section (1) shall be cognizable on a complaint in writing of an employee authorized by the Authority to the officer incharge of the police station.

34. Offences to be cognizable and bailable.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), offences under this Ordinance shall be bailable and cognizable by the magistrate first class on the complaint of an employee authorized by the Authority.

35. Offences by companies.—(1) Where an offence under this Ordinance has been committed by a company, every person who at the time of commission of offence was in charge of and was responsible for the conduct of its activities shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against under this Ordinance.

(2) Nothing contained in this section shall render any such person liable if it is proved that the offence was committed without the person's knowledge or that such person exercised due care to prevent the commission of the offence.

36. Administrative penalties.—(1) An Adjudicator may, in the prescribed manner, issue directions to any person for compliance with any provision of this Ordinance, the rules or regulations within the time and in the manner specified in such directions.

(2) If a person fails to comply with any direction of the Adjudicator within such time as may be specified in such direction or where violation is declared as grave under the regulations, the Adjudicator may pass one or more of the following orders, namely:—

- (a) direct the delinquent person to pay a fine as administrative penalty which may extend to one hundred thousand Rupees and in case the failure continues, with an additional fine which may extend to five thousand Rupees for every day during which such failure continues after the direction to pay fine for the first such failure is passed;

- (b) direct initiation of prosecution against the delinquent person for the offence under section 33;
- (c) seal (for a specified or unspecified period) the immovable property where violation of this Ordinance, rules or regulations has taken place;
- (d) direct the relevant employee of the Authority, a civic or utility agency to stop or discontinue the provision of municipal or utility services to the immovable property in occupation of the delinquent person till such time as the violation continues;
- (e) direct removal or construction of any structure by the Authority;
- (f) direct the enforcement inspector to dispossess an unauthorized occupant from an immovable property and hand over peaceful possession of the property to the person entitled to the possession of the property; and
- (g) direct cancellation of lease or allotment of the delinquent person and resumption of possession of the immovable property by the Authority.

(3) The Adjudicator shall take cognizance of a case on the report of an enforcement inspector or an employee authorized by the Authority which shall contain documentary evidence of the violation and identification of the delinquent person.

(4) The Adjudicator shall not pass any final direction or order without issuing a show-cause notice in writing and affording an opportunity of hearing to the delinquent person, in the prescribed manner.

37. Administrative penalty and offence.—(1) A person, on whom an administrative penalty is imposed under section 36, shall not be prosecuted for an offence in respect of the same incident that gave rise to imposition of the administrative penalty unless the Adjudicator directs prosecution of the person.

(2) A person charged with an offence may also be subject to an administrative penalty in respect of the same incident that gave rise to the charge of the offence.

38. Enforcement Inspectors.—(1) The Authority shall devise and implement enforcement plans regarding the observance of this Ordinance, rules and regulations.

(2) The Authority shall designate enforcement inspectors for the implementation of the enforcement plans in such manner as may be prescribed under the regulations.

(3) The enforcement inspectors shall exercise such powers, in such manner and to such extent as is provided in this Ordinance or as may be prescribed in the rules or regulations.

(4) The Authority may, for discharge of its functions under this Ordinance, seek assistance and support from law enforcement agencies and other public bodies who shall provide all such assistance and support.

39. Power to enter.—(1) Subject to any rules or regulations, an enforcement inspector may, whenever it is necessary for purposes of this Ordinance and at all reasonable times, enter upon any immovable property and—

- (a) make inspection, survey, measurement, valuation or enquiry;
- (b) take levels;
- (c) dig or bore into sub-soil;
- (d) set out boundaries and intended lines of work;
- (e) mark such levels, boundaries and lines by placing marks and cutting trenches;
- (f) take electronic or other evidence; and
- (g) do such other acts or things as may be prescribed.

(2) An enforcement inspector shall not enter any immovable property except;

- (a) with the consent of the occupant and with prior written notice specifying date and time of inspection; or
- (b) when directed by a court or Adjudicator; or
- (c) without notice to prevent any disaster in an emergency.

40. Ejection of unauthorized occupants.—(1) Subject to an opportunity of hearing, the Chairman, enforcement inspector or any other authorized officer of the Authority may summarily eject any person in unauthorized occupation of any immovable property under the management or control of the Authority and may for such ejection use such force as may be necessary.

(2) Subject to an opportunity of hearing, the Chairman, enforcement inspector or any other authorized officer of the Authority, on his own motion or on the application of the lawful occupier of an immovable property, summarily eject any person in unauthorized occupation of such immovable property in a scheme and may, for such ejection, use such force as may be necessary.

(3) Nothing contained in sub-sections (1) and (2) shall prohibit the Chairman, enforcement inspector or any other authorized officer of the Authority to proceed against such person on commission of an offence, as provided in the Ordinance.

41. Adjudicator.—(1) The Authority shall appoint one or more Adjudicators for a specified area and if the Authority appoints more than one Adjudicators for a specified area, it shall specify jurisdiction of each Adjudicator. The qualifications and terms and conditions of appointment as Adjudicator shall be prescribed through regulations.

(2) The Adjudicator shall hear and decide a case referred to him by the Chairman, Registrar or an enforcement inspector under this Ordinance, rules or regulations.

42. Inquiry and decision.— (1) The Adjudicator may—

- (a) conduct an inquiry in any case;
- (b) while inquiring into a case, exercise powers of a civil court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908) in respect of the following matters:
 - (i) summon and enforce attendance of a person, compel a person to give oral or written evidence on oath and to produce a document or any other material;
 - (ii) receive evidence on affidavit;
 - (iii) requisition information from any office; and
 - (iv) issue summons for witnesses or documents.

(2) The Adjudicator shall execute his decisions as if he is a civil court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908) or may direct an enforcement inspector to execute the decision in the manner mentioned in the direction.

(3) During the course of any proceedings before him, and before passing a final order, the Adjudicator may pass such interlocutory orders as he may consider appropriate in the circumstances.

43. Review.—If no appeal is filed under section 45 against any decision of the Adjudicator, the Adjudicator may, at any time, review his decision to correct any error or on proof of any other sufficient cause justifying review of the decision.

44. Recovery of dues.—(1) If a person fails to pay any amount due to the Authority or a mortgagor fails to repay house finance in accordance with Section 25, the Adjudicator shall, on a reference from an authorized employee of the Authority or the financial institution, as applicable, recover the amount due from the person or mortgagor as arrears of land revenue under the Land Revenue Act, 1967 (XVII of 1967).

(2) In exercise of powers under this section, the Adjudicator shall exercise any power of collector under the Land Revenue Act, 1967 (XVII of 1967).

45. Appeals.—(1) A person aggrieved from any final direction, decision or order of an Adjudicator may, within thirty days from the date of communication of the same, file an appeal before an Appellate Tribunal of the Authority.

(2) The Appellate Tribunal shall be constituted and shall discharge its functions in the prescribed manner.

(3) An appeal to the Supreme Court from a final judgment or order of the Appellate Tribunal shall lie only if the Supreme Court grants leave to appeal.

46. Bar of jurisdiction.—(1) Notwithstanding anything provided in any other law for the time being in force, but save as expressly provided in this Ordinance—

- (a) no court or other authority whatsoever shall have jurisdiction to entertain, or to adjudicate upon, any matter which the Authority, the Chairman, the Registrar or a Adjudicator, enforcement inspector or any other person is empowered by or under this Ordinance, or the rules or regulations framed thereunder, to dispose of or to determine;

- (b) the validity of anything done or an order passed by the Authority, the Chairman, the Registrar or a Adjudicator, enforcement inspector or any other person empowered by or under this Ordinance, or the rules or regulations framed thereunder, shall not be called in question in any manner whatever before or by any court or other authority whatsoever; and
- (c) no court or other authority whatsoever shall be competent to grant any injunction or pass any other order in relation to any proceedings under this Ordinance or any rules or regulations framed thereunder before the Authority, the Chairman, the Registrar or a Adjudicator, enforcement inspector or any other person empowered by or under this Ordinance, or the rules or regulations framed thereunder.
