The Federal Directorate of Education (FDE) hired the services of a number of teachers on deputation basis under the Wedlock Policy of the Government keeping in view the socio-economic problems faced by husbands and wives in government service due to posting at different stations.

An amendment was made in the Civil Servants (Appointments, Promotions and Transfer) Rules, 1973 on 16-04-2012 to facilitate the deputationists under FDE to provide that condition of 5 year maximum period of deputation would not be applicable to deputationists under wedlock policy.

A summary for the Prime Minister was moved on 8-3-2013 for absorption of Teaching staff of FDE working on deputation basis under Wedlock Policy and completed 5 years of deputation which was approved on 8-3-2013 when I was the Prime Minister. Since then several employees were absorbed while around 253 such employees of FDE have not been absorbed till date resulting in discontent amongst those employees.

The concerned Ministry is, therefore, directed to resolve the issue immediately and all such employees of FDE be absorbed w.e.f. 8-3-2013 and one-time blanket relaxation of all rules be given to cover variant scales and cadres with all benefits retrospectively.
