MOTION

43.	MR. MUHAMMAD JAWED HANIF KHAN , Chairman Standing Committee on Commerce to move that the delay in the presentation of report of the Standing Committee on the calling attention notice no. 20 regarding that Pakistan's exports have remained stagnant at USD 25-30 billion for nearly two decades, while peer economies such as Bangladesh and Vietnam have recorded substantial export growth, underscoring serious deficiencies in domestic policy. This prolonged stagnation is the result of macroeconomic instability, exchange-rate overvaluation, a punitive and complex tax regime, delayed refund mechanisms, and high and unpredictable energy costs, which together have rendered exporting uncompetitive and uncertain, referred to the Committee on 16.01.2026, till today be condoned.
