

RESOLUTION
(Passed on 22nd April, 2019)

“This House expresses deepest grief over the multiple terror attacks in Sri Lanka that took place yesterday on Easter Sunday; Mourns the loss of more than 200 lives and orate for the well-being of the 450 injured as a result of the deadly explosions; and extends heartfelt condolences to the people of Sri Lanka.

As victims of terrorism, we understand the pain and sorrow of the victims and their families. Sri Lanka bravely fought the scourge of terrorism for years to emerge as a strong nation striving for peace and stability. We salute the resilience of the Sri Lankan people and assure them of our support during these trying times.”
