

RESOLUTION.

12-05-2026

The House commends and acknowledges the outstanding achievement of Samar Khan, a distinguished Pakistani adventure athlete, for successfully summiting Mount Elbrus and snowboarding down, becoming the first Pakistani woman to accomplish this remarkable feat. This House recognizes her continued contributions to adventure sports, including being the first woman in the world to cycle across the Biafo and Godwin Austen Glaciers and the first Pakistani to cycle on Mount Kilimanjaro, reflecting exceptional courage, resilience, and determination. This House congratulates Samar Khan for bringing international recognition to Pakistan and serving as an inspiration for young women across the country.
